- b. My district allows me to put low-performing teachers on improvement plans but I did not have any teachers that were put onto one
- c. One teacher
- d. 2-3 teachers
- e. 4 or more teachers
- f. Unsure

According to Tennessee law, teachers must receive scores of 4 or higher on their annual evaluation to become eligible for tenure. However, teachers with a score below 4 may be employed on a year-to-year basis at the district's discretion. (This does not apply to teachers who received tenure before 2011.)

AM_T05. How frequently have teachers who are not eligible for tenure due to low evaluation scores been retained on the faculty of your school since you began working at this school?

- a. In most cases.
- b. About half the time.
- c. Occasionally.
- d. Rarely or never. (Skip the next question)

AM_T06. What is (are) the reason(s) for keeping these teachers? (Select all that apply)

- a. I did not believe their evaluation score was an accurate measure of their performance.
- b. I believed that the teacher's performance would improve as the result of mentoring or other forms of professional development.
- c. I could not find a better teacher in the applicant pool to replace them.
- d. I felt socially pressured to retain the teacher (e.g. pressure from the outside community, pressure from within the school).
- e. I have had no part in teacher retention decisions.
